DEFENDANT: FAIZUL HUSSAIN CASE NUMBER: S1 19-Cr-40 (WHP)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: FAIZUL HUSSAIN CASE NUMBER: S1 19-Cr-40 (WHP)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1). The defendant shall submit his person, residence, place of business, vehicle, and any property or electronic devices, data storage devices, cloud storage or media and effects to a search on the basis that the probation officer has reasonable suspicion that contraband or evidence of a violation of the conditions of the defendant's probation/supervised release may be found. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents, users, or interested parties that that premises or property may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.
- 2). The defendant shall participate in an outpatient mental health treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office,. The defendant shall continue to take any prescribed medications unless otherwise instructed by the health care provider. The Court authorizes the release of available substance abuse treatment evaluations and reports to the treatment provider, as approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment) in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment.
- 3). The defendant will not access any websites, chatrooms, instant messaging, or social networking sites where the defendant's criminal history-including this conviction-would render such access in violation of the terms of service of that website, chatroom, instant messaging or social networking site. The defendant shall permit the Probation Office to install any application or software that allows it to survey and/or monitor all activity on any computer(s), automated service(s), or connected devices that the defendant will use during the term of supervision and that can access the internet (collectively the "Devices), and the Probation Office is authorized to install such applications or software. Tampering with or circumventing the Probation Office's monitoring capabilities is prohibited. To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, the defendant must allow the Probation Officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced examinations of any Devices that are subject to monitoring. The defendant must notify any other people who use the Devices that it is subject to examination pursuant to this condition. The defendant must provide Probation Office advance notice of planned use of any Devices and will not use any Devices without approval until compatibility is determined and installation is completed. The defendant shall not create or access any internet service provider account or other online service using someone else's account, name, designation or alias. The defendant shall not use any peer-to-peer and/or file sharing applications without prior approval.
- 4). The defendant is restricted from viewing, accessing, possessing and/or downloading any sexually explicit material involving minors, including those created via the method of morphing or other image creation format. The defendant will not view or possess any "visual depiction (as defined in 18 USC 2256) including any photograph, film, video, picture or computer-generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, of "sexually explicit conduct" by a minor under the age of 18.
- 4). The defendant shall undergo a sex-offense-specific evaluation and participate in a sex-offense-specific evaluation and participate in an outpatient sex offender treatment and/or mental health treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and the conditions of the sex offender treatment program(s), including submission to polygraph testing and refraining from accessing websites, chatrooms, instant messaging, or social networking sites to the extent that the sex offender treatment and/or mental health treatment program determines that such access would be detrimental to the defendant's ongoing treatment. The defendant will not vie, access, possess, and/or download any pornography involving adults unless approved by the sex-offender specific treatment provider. The defendant must waive his right of confidentiality in any records for mental health assessment and treatment imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the U.S. Probation Officer to review the defendant's course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered in an amount approved by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report to the sex offender treatment provider and/or mental health treatment provider.
- 6). The defendant shall not have deliberate contact with any child under 18 years of age unless approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The defendant must not loiter within 100 feet of places regularly frequented by children under the age of 18, such as schoolyards, playgrounds, and arcades. The defendant must not view and/or access any web profile of users under the age of 18. This includes, but is not limited to, social networking websites, community portals, chat rooms or other online environment (audio/visual/messaging), etc. which allows for real-time interaction with other users, without prior approval from your probation officer.
